Happy New Year Everyone!

And welcome back to the newsletter. Yes, our first electronic edition went very well and then seemed to disappear. Why you ask? Because I didn't receive ANY stuff to put in it. :) Come on people, we need to keep information coming.

Hope you all had a wonderful holiday season and got some riding in. I managed to ride bareback a few times as it was so cold. Okay, I admit that I skied lots. It looks like we're going to have another great year of eventing. Lots of events and clinics scheduled. Hope we get to see you out there.

Some of our lucky riders have already headed south to start their season early. They've promised me to send some updates to rub our noses in it, oh, sorry I mean to keep us informed and motivated. :) I just don't know why they won't adopt me.

Don't forget to get your 2010 memberships. Do it now and get organized for the year. Membership forms are available on our website under forms.

Wishing you all a successful eventing year!

2009 Casino

A huge thanks goes out to all those people who worked the Casino fundraiser on December 1 & 2nd. The casino fundraiser is a major source of income for our association. We had a few of the quieter days but that just gave us more time to visit with friends. Thanks also to the people who volunteered but didn't get a chance to work. You missed out on all the fun.

High Performance has Another Successful Year!

The High Performance (HP) Program had a fantastic 2009 season. The 24 riders, selected from the High Performance List published annually in the Omnibus, had a range of opportunities to enhance the performance of their horses, themselves as riders, and their coaching skills.

Clinics were held in February in Florida at the Tyerman and Gaglione's farm and in Edmonton at Fieldstone Farm in early May. These clinics were led by Lorraine Laframboise, HP coach/consultant and focused on both mounted and un-mounted skills. In Florida, Lorraine provided a three day clinic prior to a major competition, and then was able to coach the riders through the competition as well.

In June, we were thrilled to be able to invite Jane Bartle-Wilson from the UK to run a coaching clinic at Cochrane. The first day was an open audit day where 40 auditors learned as Jane coached three groups of increasingly skilled riders on the flat in the morning and over jumps in the afternoon. The next three days were focused on intensive coaching skills with 10 coaches. Each day, coaches brought their own students and worked on various skills with mentorship and feedback from Jane as well as from the other coaches.

Noel Clark & Gotteulan

Noel Clark & Gotteulan

Our major focus event of the year is Rebecca Farms. This year, Lorraine was unable to be with us as she had a conflict with her Quebec Young Rider team who was competing at NAJYRC in Kentucky at the same time. One of our Young Riders, Liam Kronlund, was on the Quebec/ Alberta team with Lorraine. However, we put together a mini-team with Karen Nyrop as our team vet and Terry Clark as our mental skills coach. We had 12 HP riders competing at the FEI levels. We are incredibly proud to say that all of our riders passed all jogs and successfully completed their courses, 10 of the 12 in the ribbons! Our annual gift to all HP riders was a beautifully embroidered quarter sheet – special thanks to Tina Thompson and EquiProducts.

In November, we had our fall clinic at Alborak Stables and were able to introduce a new member of our coaching team – Jody Sloper. We are very excited that Jody will be able to add extras to the program such as monitoring and mentoring athletes through their yearly goals and providing event coaching when Lorraine is unavailable. Lorraine and Jody work very well together and our program will be enhanced significantly as a result!

Sarah Cunningham, Sandra Donnelly, Rebecca Lee and Tricia Dahms

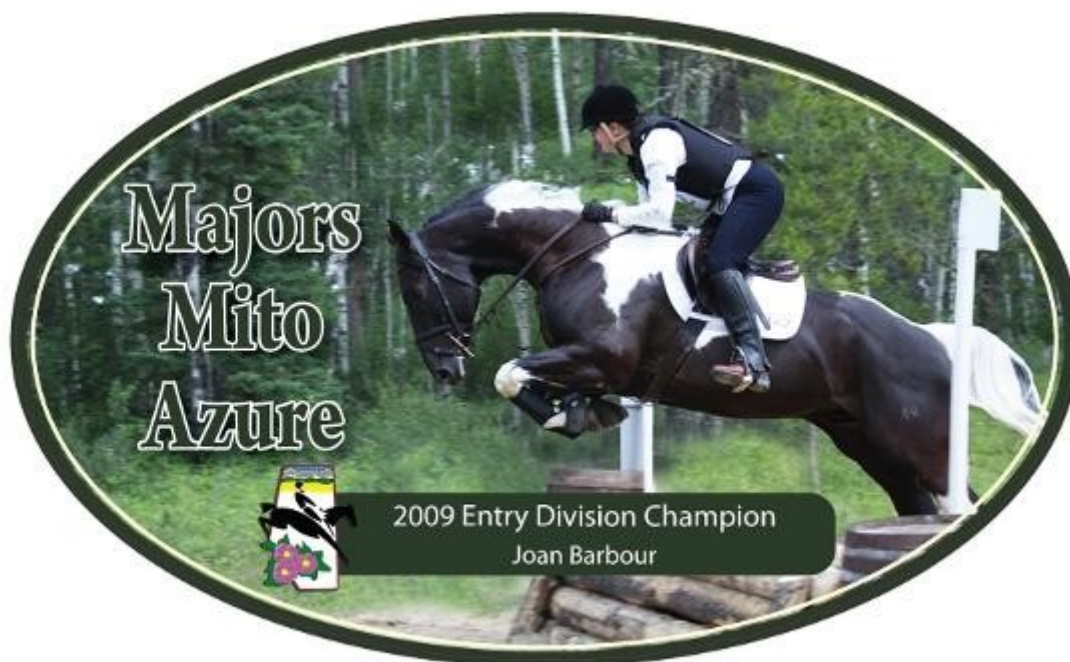

Finally, the HP Program sponsored four of our AB eventing coaches to attend the National Eventing Coaching Symposium outside of Toronto in late November. The sponsored coaches were: Sandra Donnelly, Tricia Dahms, Rebecca Lee, and Sarah Cunningham. The intention is that this sponsorship enabled these coaches to strengthen their skills, which in turn gives back to AB eventing as a whole.

HP Program members are invited from those riders who are named to the HP List (as described in the omnibus). In 2009 we had 24 members and we have a potential of 30 members this year! However, the goal of the program, while wanting to be inclusive, also needs to focus on providing as much support as possible to the top AB riders. Therefore, criteria will be tightened for the 2011 year. So, for those who are aspiring to become a member of the HP Program for 2011, you will need to complete 3 prelim competitions in the past 12 months, each with a qualifying score.

Membership in the HP Program is $100 per year which provides access to the clinics and coaching at a significantly reduced cost. Many thanks to our program sponsors: the AB Sport, Recreation, Parks, and Wildlife Foundation with matching dollars from AHTA.

For all the horse women in the world.

I ride. That seems like such a simple statement. However, as many women who ride know, it is really a complicated matter. It has to do with power and empowerment. Being able to do things you might have once considered out of reach or ability.

I have considered this as I shovel manure, fill water barrels in the cold rain, wait for the vet/farrier/electrician/hay delivery, change a tire on a horse trailer by the side of the freeway, or cool a gelding out before getting down to the business of drinking a cold beer after a long ride.

The time, the money, the effort it takes to ride calls for dedication. At least I call it dedication. Both my ex-husbands call it 'the sickness.' It's a sickness I've had since I was a small girl bouncing my model horses and dreaming of the day I would ride a real horse. Most of the women I ride with understand the meaning of 'the sickness.' It's not a sport. It's not a hobby. It's what we do and, in some ways, who we are as women and human beings.

I ride. I hook up my trailer and load my gelding. I haul to some trailhead somewhere, unload, saddle, whistle up my dog, and I ride. I breathe in the air, watch the sunlight filter through the trees and savor the movement of my horse. My shoulders relax. A smile rides my sunscreen smeared face. I pull my ball cap down and let the real world fade into the tracks my horse leaves in the dust.

Time slows. Flying insects buzz loudly, looking like fairies. My gelding flicks his ears and moves down the trail. I can smell his sweat and it is perfume to my senses. Time slows. The rhythm of the walk and the movement of the leaves become my focus. My saddle creaks and the leather rein in my hand softens with the warmth.

I consider the simple statement; I ride. I think of all I do because I ride. Climb granite slabs, wade into a freezing lake, race a friend through the Manzanita all the while laughing and feeling my heart in my chest. Other days just the act of mounting and dismounting can be a real accomplishment. Still I ride. No matter how tired or how much my seat bones or any of the numerous horse related injuries hurt. I ride. And I feel better for doing so.

The beauty I've seen because I ride amazes me. I've ridden out to find lakes that remain for the most part, unseen. Caves, dark and cold beside rivers full and rolling are the scenes I see in my dreams. The Granite Stairway at Echo Summit, bald eagles on the wing and bobcats on the prowl add to the empowerment and joy in my heart.

I think of the people, mostly women, I've met. I consider how competent they all are. Not a weenie amongst the bunch. We haul 40ft rigs. We back into tight spaces without clipping a tree. We set up camp. Tend the horses. We cook and keep safe. We understand and love our companions, the horse. We respect each other and those we encounter on the trail. We know that if you are out there riding, you also shovel, fill, wait, and doctor. Your hands are a little rough and you travel without makeup or hair gel.

You do without to afford the 'sickness' and probably, when you were a small girl, you bounced a model horse while you dreamed of riding a real one. Now you are there. I ride.

Young Rider Program, WHOA! Don't panic!

The YR program has not been "eliminated".....We are doing our best to meet the needs of "ALL" our members. Over the past few seasons the YR's program has struggled, largely due to the increasing gap between YOUNG EVENTERS and Qualified YOUNG RIDER'S who plan to attend NAJYRC.

OUR GOAL IS TO SUPPORT ALL LEVELS OF RIDERS FROM (pre) pre-entry to Prelim. AND BEYOND

The AHTA will host a series of clinics. YOUNG EVENTERS will be encouraged to attend. Through these clinics YOUNG EVENTERS will be identified as future Young Riders. Qualified YOUNG RIDERS who aspire to attend NAJYRC will be supported through the High Performance Program.

We are looking forward to an exciting 2010 eventing season and supporting you. Remember to keep reading "NEWSBITES" for updates on clinics and other important information. For further information regarding the 2010 program please contact ...Bonnie Hayward khayward@telusplanet.net
